Sophie Belgrove is a specialist in employment law and commercial litigation. She advises and represents clients in the Employment Tribunal, the High Court and the appellate courts. Her practice encompasses all aspects of employment law including high value discrimination and whistleblowing claims. She is experienced in complex litigation in particular urgent applications for injunctive relief and business protection disputes in the High Court relating to confidential information, restraint of trade and breach of fiduciary duties. She advises and acts in disputes involving shareholders and directors and in partnership disputes. Sophie is also known for her specialist expertise in employment-related insurance disputes. She has extensive experience of advising and representing clients in the financial services sector, including investment banks and brokers. She is recognised as a leading practitioner in Chambers UK and in the Legal 500.

Sophie Belgrove is client-friendly and has the ability to absorb a lot of detail.

Expertise

Commercial Litigation

Sophie has a wide-ranging commercial practice with a particular focus on high value business protection disputes, company and partnership disputes and commercial contract issues. Sophie is known for her work in the financial services sector, acting for major investment banks, brokers and insurance companies. She has extensive expertise in team move cases and claims of breach of confidence and breach of contract. She frequently advises and acts in disputes in relation to share purchase agreements, shareholder agreements, the construction of partnership agreements and claims of breach of fiduciary duties against directors.

Sophie is also accustomed to appearing in civil fraud claims including conspiracy claims, misappropriation of proprietary information and the taking of secret profits and bribes and has in-depth expertise in relation to the grant of urgent injunctive relief including delivery up and search orders.

Sophie advises and acts in insurance matters, including the construction of insurance policy wordings, breach of warranty claims, avoidance of policies of insurance for misrepresentation and non-disclosure and claims under the Third Parties (Rights Against Insurers) Act 1930. “

She has a very intellectual and detail-oriented approach, combined with a supreme team-player attitude.

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS

“

A thoughtful, technically very accurate and responsive barrister who gets properly involved.

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS

“

One of the very strongest employment juniors at the Bar. A genuine star.

LEGAL 500

“

She is very commercial, responsive and good on her feet; her cross-examination style is very effective but subtle and the [witness] does not realise they are being undermined.

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS

“

Very approachable and down to earth.

LEGAL 500

“

A first class junior... She is hands-on and constructive, gets to grips quickly with the matters at issue, and has a keen eye for detail.

CHAMBERS UK

“

She achieves great results and is a real hit with clients.

LEGAL 500
