Ruth specialises in all areas of commercial, employment, human rights, international, public and sports law.

She acts in the most high-profile and complex cases. She is consistently recognised in the legal directories as a leading junior across her areas of practice: in administrative law, civil liberties and human rights; commercial dispute resolution; employment, public inquiries and sport.

She has been described as "a real star of the future and a star of the junior bar already", "absolutely fantastic", "a superb advocate", "a real rising star", "a brilliant barrister", "brilliant in everything she does", "exceptionally hard-working", "a pleasure to work with" and having "superstar quality."

A member of both the Attorney General's London B panel and specialist Public International B panel, Ruth has acted and appeared in various domestic courts and tribunals up to and including the Supreme Court, as well as international courts including the DIFC, European Court of Human Rights and the International Court of Justice. She has experience of acting in arbitrations under the LCIA, ICC and UNCITRAL rules and under specialist sports arbitrations.

Ruth Kennedy
produces excellent
work and is always positive in her
approach.
