Lucy is recognised as a “Rising Star”, with a practice spanning all areas of public, commercial, employment, data protection and international law. She has a particular specialisation on disputes with an international dimension and is a member of the Attorney General’s Public International Law C Panel.

Lucy is instructed in high-profile cases before a wide range of international and domestic courts. Current and recent highlights include:

- Guyana v Venezuela (Arbitral Award of 3 October 1899) – a case concerning the international boundary between the two States as determined by an arbitral award dating from 1899.
- Smart City Solutions v. Guyana – an ICSID arbitration concerning a parking concession in the capital city of Georgetown.
- British Business Bank plc v Information Commissioner – an appeal under the FOIA maintaining non-disclosure in the Bank’s favour.
- Dare International Ltd v Ersen – a restrictive covenant case concerning the trading of energy derivatives.

Lucy Jones is extremely bright and helpful. She works incredibly hard.

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS

A number of human rights challenges before domestic courts and the European Court of Human Rights.

Before coming to the Bar, Lucy qualified as a solicitor at Freshfields, where she practised as an Associate in the Dispute Resolution Team. She brings a modern, practical and team-oriented approach to her work as a result. She also previously worked as a Government Legal Adviser where she advised on data policy and the negotiation of the UK's international trade agreements. She is ranked by Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners as a "Rising Star" and "Up and Coming". Directory commentary notes her as being "extremely bright and helpful", putting "tremendous energy into cases".
