Lucy is recognised as a “Rising Star”, with a practice spanning all areas of public, human rights, commercial, employment, data protection and international law. She is a member of the Attorney General’s London C Panel and the specialist Public International C Panel.

Lucy acts in high-profile and complex cases before a wide range of international and domestic courts and tribunals, including the European Court of Human Rights, the International Court of Justice and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea.

Before coming to the Bar, Lucy qualified as a solicitor at Freshfields, where she practised as an Associate in the Dispute Resolution Team. She brings a modern, practical and team-oriented approach to her work as a result. She also previously worked as a Government Legal Adviser where she advised on public law, data policy and the negotiation of the UK’s international trade agreements.

Lucy is ranked by Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners as a “Rising Star” and “Up and Coming”. Directory commentary notes her as being “extremely bright and helpful”, putting “tremendous energy into cases”.

> Lucy Jones works extremely hard. She puts tremendous energy into cases, which is much appreciated.
