Paul is very experienced barrister who specialises in education law. His background in public, commercial, employment, discrimination, planning, regulatory, and data protection law mean he is able to offer advice and representation in all areas of education law with confidence. Paul acts for the full range of clients in this sector, including schools, universities, parents, students, local authorities, multi-academy trusts, government departments and other education bodies and organisations. He provides traditional legal advice and representation in all courts and tribunals, as well as associated services such as investigations, complaint hearings, mediations and training. He is the editor of the 'Education Law Handbook' (LexisNexis, 2021), has experience as a school governor and Chair of Trustees for a Multi-Academy Trust, and is Chair of Trustees of a charity for children and adults with autism. Paul has appeared in the Supreme Court on a number of occasions (including independently) and has done numerous cases in the Court of Appeal. Paul is registered for public access and enjoys working closely with clients to help them achieve their goals.
