

Christian Davies

Call: 2021

E: Christian.Davies@11kbw.com

T: +44 (0)20 7632 8500

Christian has a broad practice spanning public law, human rights, commercial law, employment and discrimination law and a wide range of related practice areas.

Christian is ranked as a Rising Star in Legal 500 and described as "exceptional across the board" and "way beyond his call".

Before coming to the Bar, Christian trained and qualified as a solicitor in the employment team at Slaughter and May. He subsequently worked as a solicitor at the Public Law Project, focusing on strategic public law litigation.

Way beyond his call

LEGAL 500

Expertise

Sport

Christian accepts instructions in a wide range of sport-related matters. He recently acted for World Athletics in a challenge before the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) regarding the regulations which govern who can compete in the women's category in athletic events.

Achievements

Education

Christian graduated in 2014 with a first in Philosophy and Politics from the University of Manchester. Before transferring to the Bar in 2021, Christian qualified as a solicitor in 2018 after completing the GDL and LPC at BPP University.